Celebration of World Sparrow Day

The population of the house sparrow, a beautiful bird found around human settlement. It is sharply declining in different parts of the country. Unfortunately, this problem has now crossed the political, national boundaries and a number of countries are losing this beautiful bird. As a result, the issue of sparrow decline has become a matter of deep concern and discussion among academicians, social workers, researchers and general mass.

One often feels that the government should take appropriate measures to save the environment including sparrow. Never the less, since we equally share and enjoy different components and amenities of the environment and therefore, it becomes the responsibility of every student, citizen to contribute to the welfare of the environment.
