If it is found at any time that any information given by you is incomplete, incorrect, untrue or you have suppressed any information, the Company will have the right to withdraw this letter before you commence your training or to terminate your training, at any time, without any notice or compensation, in case you have started the training with us. Company shall also have a right to recover from you the stipend already paid to you, if any.
7. In case of termination of service during apprenticeship period, you will be required to serve the notice period of 30 days.
8. You shall keep confidential all information that you may receive orally, in writing or otherwise of the Company including in respect of Company's business, its customers, suppliers, service providers, products etc. during the course of your training as confidential. Confidential information shall include all information which is not in public domain and which if disclosed may adversely impact the Company.

You are restricted from copying or removing any confidential / proprietary information of the Company outside the Company premises without prior written permission from the Management.

Disclosure of confidential information at any point of time shall make you liable to pay compensation, damages to the Company.

You shall use confidential information in relation to the Company's business only for the purpose of your training. All such information should not be used by you for any of your subsequent employments or businesses. Your obligations in respect of Company's confidential information shall be in perpetual.

9. All rights in any intellectual property, invention, development, improvement in process that you might create or cause whilst engaged with the Company shall exclusively vest with the Company. You shall execute all such documents as may be required in law to formally assign the rights to the Company. The stipend paid by the Company shall be deemed to be an adequate consideration for such assignments.
10. In accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956, as amended by the Companies (Amendment) Act, 2013, you are required to disclose your relations or business connections, if any, with the Directors of this Company. You are requested to make the declaration in the enclosed form and submit it to us duly filled in.
11. We would be conducting a background and reference check on the information submitted by you. Your engagement with us is contingent upon satisfactory report on the background check conducted by our Company's approved agency.

Your employment will be subject to a Six months' probationary period from the date of joining the Company. At the end of this period an assessment will be made of your work performance and if unsatisfactory this will be confirmed in writing. If your work performance is not of the required standard the company may extend your probationary period or terminate your employment without assigning any reasons.

10. Notice Period

You are required to provide the company with not less than 90 day's written Notice to terminate this agreement. The company does not encourage adjusting notice period against the either leave or forfeiture of salary. The 90 days' notice period is mandatory even during the probationary period.

You are required to handover all the work related activities before formal relieving.

11. Termination

The Company may elect to terminate your employment without notice or payment in lieu in the following circumstances:-

(a) If you, in relation to your employment:

- (i) Willfully disobey a lawful and reasonable order;
- (ii) Engage in misconduct including, conduct being inconsistent with the due and faithful discharge of your duties;
- (iii) Are guilty of fraud or dishonesty; or
- (iv) Are habitually neglectful in your duties; or

(b) On any other ground on which the company would be entitled to terminate your employment without notice.

12. Absence without Notice

Absence without leave or remaining absent beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended shall result in automatic termination of your employment without any notice unless you

- 1) Advise the company of your absence as soon as possible and if such advice is not possible, then at least by a message or a call; and
- 2) Provide satisfactory explanation to management regarding such absence.
